To Whom It May Concern:

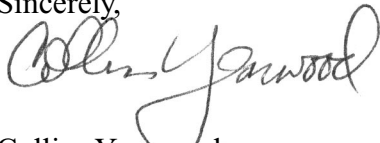

I have had the pleasure of working with Hill Rawls Marketing Consultants, LLC for the past three years, as editor of the University of Chicago Hospitals employee publication, The Forefront.

Hill Rawls Marketing Consultants has been the marketing design firm of record for The Forefront for four years.

Throughout the course of our business relationship, I have found Valerie Rawls and her senior designer, Yvonne Matsumoto, easy to work with, flexible and reliable. As the editor it is important that my design firm consistently delivers quality work.

With that in mind, I highly recommend Hill Rawls Marketing Consultants, LLC within the University of Chicago Hospitals, and to any organization seeking a professional and creative marketing firm.

Sincerely,

Collins Yearwood
Editor, The Forefront
